Representative al-Lahham welcomed the visit of Lieutenant Colonel al-Shalabi and the accompanying delegation, and qualified it as a noble gesture that serves to bolster the excellent relations between the Deheisheh Camp and the security institution in the governorate. He presented a description of the Phoenix Center and the nature of services it offers to the governorate, and reviewed the camp's various institutions which have become a model for other camps.

For his part, Lieutenant Colonel al-Shalabi stated that this visit comes within the directives of the leadership and the policy of the Governorate Police Command for the need to communicate with all public and civil institutions, and to promote real partnerships with the police with the objective of communication and cooperation as this is in the public interest that reinforces security and safety for everyone.

Representative al-Lahham and a number of the camp cadres escorted Lieutenant Colonel al-Shalabi and the accompanying delegation on his tour inside the camp, which included a visit to the relief agency office in the camp during which they met the Camp Director, Mr. Mustafa al-Soubani. They also visited the Ibdah Institution, the medical center, and the offices of the local committee for the rehabilitation of the disabled.

The visit was concluded at the house of the prisoner Lieutenant Hilmi Hamash, a member of the Palestinian Police, where they were received by the prisoner's family. Lieutenant Colonel al-Shalabi conveyed the greetings of the Police Command to them and assured them that the Police are keen to communicate with all its sons and their families.

For their part, the family of prisoner Hamash considered the visit by Lieutenant Colonel al-Shalabi, his Deputy, and the accompanying delegation to be important and meaningful, and that it reflects the genuineness of Palestinian Police and its Command.
